You must contribute 50 hours of community service work over a period of 6 months or less, from the date of the modification of supervised release commences. Such service will be without compensation, with the specific work placement to be approved by the U.S. Probation Office.

CAUSE

On August 4, 2021, Ms. Valdez was sentenced by Your Honor to 1 day imprisonment and 36 months supervised release. In addition to the standard conditions of supervised release, the following special conditions were imposed: 18 months Location Monitoring Program (satisfied) No New Debt and Financial Disclosure. Your Honor additionally ordered a special assessment fee of $100.00 and a fine in the amount of $2,500.00 (finest are paid in full).

On December 17, 2022, Ms. Valdez was arrested by officers from the Port Authority Police Department and charged with the following offenses: (1) Driving While Intoxicated; (2) Reckless Driving; (3) Failure to Stop or Yield; and (4) Disregard of Marked Lanes. Her BAC reading was 0.205 at the time of her arrest. She was released to a friend and her vehicle was impounded.

On January 10, 2023, Ms. Valdez made her initial appearance in Fort Lee Municipal Court and her case remains pending. Ms. Valdez called the U.S. Probation Office when she was arrested and admitted to drinking with her coworkers at TAO Restaurant and Bar after her work shift ended.

Ms. Valdez had been in full compliance with her release conditions prior to this arrest. She is employed as a hostess and bartender in various bars and restaurants in New York City, her fines are paid in full, and she has complied with her location monitoring schedules.

On February 13, 2023, we presented Ms. Valdez with a Waiver of Hearing to Modify the Conditions of Supervised Release (Probation Form 49), in lieu of a Violation of Supervised Release Hearing.

The U.S. Probation Office is seeking this modification of Ms. Valdez' conditions of supervised release to include 50 hours of Community Service work over a period of 6 months or less. This additional condition will serve as punishment and deterrence.

If Your Honor believes there should be a different recommendation, please advise. The undersigned can be reached at (973)223-0101.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
